

JUST FOR KIDS – AUGUST 2023

STORIES

IT'S STILL SUMMER!

THE VERY QUIET CRICKET by Eric Carle (ages 3-5) Animated

Have you ever heard a cricket chirp? Do you know how they make that sound? This little cricket meets lots of different insects who greet him with a hello, but he can't make a sound to greet them back, until one day something different happens.

TAR BEACH by Faith Ringgold (ages 8-12) Read aloud

Cassie Louise Lightfoot goes to the "tar beach" with her family. There's no sand and no water because this "beach" is the roof of a building. Cassie has a dream: to be free to go wherever she wants for the rest of her life. One night, up on "tar beach," her dreams come true. The stars lift her up, and she flies over the city, claiming the buildings and the city as her own.

JEWISH TALES

SOMETHING FROM NOTHING by Phoebe Gilman (ages 5-10) Read aloud

Have you ever outgrown a baby blanket or something special, but don't want to throw it away? When Joseph's baby blanket gets tattered and worn out, he doesn't want to get rid of it. See how his grandfather solves this problem over and over in this wonderful Jewish tale.

HINT: Be sure to look at the bottom of each page to see how the mouse family lives like Joseph's underneath the floorboards!

THE KEEPING QUILT by Patricia Polacco (ages 7 and up) Read aloud

Do you have something in your family that belonged to a grandparent or other family member from a past generation? In this story, based on Patricia Polacco's family, something is passed on through the generations. It all started with Great-Gramma Anna who arrived from Russia and stitched a quilt from scraps belonging to family members so that the family here would "always remember home." Look for ways that some traditions change over the years and others some remain the same, and how the quilt ties each generation to the ones before.
