Getting Back to 'Normal'

The plan to go back to 'normal' is not official yet and is subject to change as the Covid regulations change.

In-house Saturday services are being held and are working out very well. High Holiday services are expected to be fully held in-house with Zooming for those who are unable to attend. By October, it is anticipated services, Minyanaires' bagels, and Men's Club breakfasts will go back to relative normalcy.

If the projection for relative normalcy by October occurs, restarting of Bingo and Pull Tabs, the major congregation fundraisers representing fifteen to twenty percent of operating expenses, could also begin. However, this restart will require the commitment of not only past volunteers but also new volunteers. A meeting will be held by late August with those interested in becoming a Bingo/Pull Tab volunteer.

The weekly e-mail blasts will provide updates to getting back to 'normal'.

High Holiday Prayer Book Pickup, for those who will be zooming, will be on Monday, August 16th between 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm. You may also pick up prayer books during office hours.

Carole's Request: Email communications to the office and for Scroll submittals are requested to be sent to the synagogue email address at saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com. Submittal of graphics or graphic requests are requested by the 7th of the month prior to the next Scroll.

Communications

- We are trying to communicate more with our members and friends by email. We have been sending out weekly if not more often, email messages. If we do not have your email address, or if you are not sure if we do, please send it to: saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com so we can add it to our contacts.
- We have a phone tree that sends out messages from the synagogue. If you are not receiving the messages, please call the office and provide Carole with your phone number.

When You Need Something

- If you know of a congregant who would like a home or hospital visit, call Carole in the office, who will contact Sunshine Outreach, generously run by Cynthia Flax and Roberta Gottesman.
- Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you have any questions about any of our programs.

Memorial Candles & Birthday Greetings

- The Congregation sends out a reminder letter with a memorial candle when you have a yahrzeit for a loved one. We also send annual birthday greetings. Let the office know if you would prefer to not receive candles, or are not receiving reminder letters/ birthday greetings.

Remembrance/Dedications

- If you would like to honor your loved ones who have departed, we offer Memorial Plaques in the Sanctuary. They are a permanent remembrance for those who are no longer with us. The cost is $500 per plaque. In addition, one can dedicate a Prayer book to honor a special occasion ($36) or a gold leaf in the vestibule's Tree of Life ($200). For more information, please call Carole in the office.
- As our Mi Sheberach list grows, we are not sure if some of our congregants and friends still need to be on the list. Please call Carole so that we can update our list and keep it current.

We would like to thank three very generous families who purchased 36 Lev Shalem siddurs for our congregation to use. We have recently started using these new prayer books for our Friday evening service and our Shabbat morning service.

A new leaf has been added to our Tree of Recognition by Roberta Mintzer in honor of the birth of her great-grandson Cameron Papp.

We thank Bob Katzman for generously donating to the synagogue file cabinets and a couch. We greatly appreciate it.

We thank Felice Karlitz and Sharon Dunn who have been coming weekly to the synagogue and cataloging our library. It is a very large undertaking and we greatly appreciate their help with this.

From the Desk of Sid

Just so you know our grounds and cemetery are looking better every month. It's an ongoing labor of caring to keep it up. Our friends and family that are at rest in our cemetery cannot do this for themselves so we do it for them. It is a big time mitzvah to keep our cemetery looking good. It's also good for us to see this take place slowly but surely. You will see the improvements as time goes on. Thank you all for your help to keep us going in the right direction and thank you to those who head up our grounds and cemetery. Your efforts show. Hope all is good with everyone. A special thank you to Al Kasin, Skip Woodcock, and Phil Weissman on their work to remove the old cemetery shed. A second round of a special thank you to Al Kasin, Phil Weissman and Allan Littell on a general cleanup of the cemetery including the removal of the pile-up of stones on some gravestones. A bucket of stones is available for continued remembrances

New Jerusalem;

the Interrogation of Baruch de Spinoza at Talmud Torah
Congregation: Amsterdam, July 27, 1656

- 📍 Sunday, July 25 at 1 PM & 5 PM
Congregation Shaara T'Fille, Saratoga Springs
- 📍 Sunday, August 1 at 1 PM & 5 PM
Congregation Beth Shalom, Clifton Park

Baruch de Spinoza is a young merchant, philosopher, and the heir apparent to the Chief Rabbi of Amsterdam, Saul Mortera. However, Amsterdam Sephardic Jews made a fatal arrangement with the city as they agreed to police their own community for unorthodox beliefs. When the city accuses Spinoza of atheism, Rabbi Mortera summons him to the synagogue to defend himself. Spinoza's best friend, his sister, and the woman he loves are all drawn into the controversy, a historical event that shook up not only the entire Jewish community of Amsterdam, but changed Spinoza's and Mortera's lives—and all of Western thought—irrevocably. No written record survives of what was said at Temple Talmud Torah on July 27, 1656.

The play New Jerusalem is a reimagining of the interrogation and eventual excommunication of Spinoza that day. In this eloquent and masterful drama, playwright David Ives attempts to open the temple doors and let us listen in on a dispute whose philosophical and political echoes still reverberate today.

Heart Songs

A Holocaust Memoir

Author Barbara Gilford tells the story of the Buchsbaum family's escape from the Nazi invasion of Czechoslovakia in March of 1939. The family was fractured by taking different paths as intelligence was not enough to survive and bad decisions could prove fatal. Their stories live in Heart Songs, A Holocaust Memoir, which creates the legacy of love and loss inherited by Ms. Gilford.

Grandmother Clara Buchsbaum fled to Italy in 1939 and found refuge in the mountain village of San Donato Val di Comino where the local residents sheltered 28 Jewish refugees. Clara's many letters to her son, who had escaped to England, reflect her deep love for him and her relentless efforts to obtain a visa to a country beyond Europe's borders.

Photographs and excerpts from Clara's letters detailing her attempts to emigrate take the reader on Clara's journey from pre-war Czechoslovakia to her heartbreaking end. In telling the tragic story of the family she never knew, Ms. Gilford explores familial and psychological aspects of the Holocaust while celebrating the fortitude and resiliency of those who died and those who survived.

Ms. Gilford was a teacher, psychotherapist, and a journalist who contributed more than 200 articles to The New York Times. She considers the COVID-19 pandemic, while tragic for many, a boon for writers, artists, and those who find, in solitude, an opportunity to grow, deepen, and expand their very "selves."

Homecoming

A film by Beyoncé

This intimate, in-depth look at Beyoncé's celebrated 2018 Coachella performance reveals the emotional road from creative concept to cultural movement.

Beyoncé, celebrated black singer and performer, weaves together an intricately choreographed work of performance art that is unapologetically feminist, and unabashedly steeped in all aspects of African American culture, especially in its use of the visual iconography of historically black colleges and universities.
