From the Desk of Rabbi Marmor

From the second night of Passover, for forty-nine nights to the eve of Shavuot, we count the Omer. This year, that's from the 16th of April to the 4th of June. This time of year has become associated with tragedy and persecution over the course of Jewish history, particularly during the course of the crusades. One factor in this is surely the passions (pun intended) stirred in the medieval Christian community by the Easter holiday, paired with the blood libel which was often levied against the Jews at the time of Passover. For all the dramatic pathos of accusations of deicide, ritual murder, and cannibalism, there is the corresponding bathos of a second reason this season saw violence against Jews throughout the Middle Ages: spring weather is more conducive for a rampage than cold winter.

A striking example of this pattern followed the coronation of Richard I of England (yes, the one in the Robin Hood stories) in the fall of 1189. When Richard was crowned, deadly riots broke out against the Jews of London after some Jews were expelled from the coronation banquet, where they had come to pay homage to the new king, apparently unaware that Jews were forbidden to participate in the celebration. After a quiet winter, the violence erupted anew in the spring of 1190, including the collective suicide of the entire Jewish community of York under siege by a violent mob at Clifford's Tower, on Shabbat HaGadol, the Sabbath before Passover.

The dark mood of the Omer period is punctuated by the raucous celebration of Lag Ba'Omer, the thirty-third day of the count, which falls on May 19th this year. While the origins of this celebration are a little opaque, it is a popular occasion on the modern Israeli calendar, celebrated with parades, picnics, archery, and bonfires, as well as a lot of weddings (which are customarily avoided during the Omer prior to this day). While the observances are laden with Kabbalistic significance for those of that inclination, particularly the Chasidim; for Israelis, it is also simply a day that celebrates going outside and enjoying the beauty of the land of Israel.

Congregation Shaara Tfile Annual Meeting

Please join us for our annual meeting on Wednesday, May 18, 2022. The meeting will be held at 7:00 pm at the Synagogue and on Zoom. Pursuant to the constitution, you will receive a letter with the agenda for the meeting. A Zoom link will be sent prior to the meeting

Please note, you must have all of your synagogue financial obligations paid in full to attend, participate and vote.

Future Scroll Distribution

After much discussion we have decided that our bi-monthly newsletter will be going virtual. Presently, it is being mailed, emailed and it is available on our website, saratogasyagogue.org. Both the financial cost and the redundancy, has prompted us to make the decision to no longer do mass mailings of the Scroll. If you still wish to receive a hard copy mailed to your home every other month, please call the office. If you do not call, we will assume that the virtual copy is sufficient. If you are not receiving your copy of the Scroll through email and would like to, please call the office and leave your email address. The Scroll can be downloaded and printed at home and if that is not feasible, you are welcome to pick one up at the synagogue.

Need for Volunteers – Bingo and Pull-Tabs

Bingo and Pull-Tabs have not been held since March 2020 due to the pandemic. In the past, these fund raisers have provided about 15% of the Congregation's yearly expenses. Because of continued health concerns, Bingo and Pull-Tabs are not planned to begin any earlier than early Fall, 2022.

The controlling factor to resume Bingo and Pull-Tabs is availability of volunteers. Since the pandemic the list of past volunteers have decreased due to deaths, and individuals moving from Saratoga. In addition, there is hesitancy of some to continue until at least early Fall, assuming Covid cases continue their decrease. These factors together with the fact that the age of the majority of volunteers is in the 70's and 80s, necessitate the need to recruit additional volunteers. Even though two new members have volunteered to support this fund raiser, there is still a shortfall of two to four people by early Fall.

We need more help for the long-term continuance of Bingo and Pull-Tabs. We offer free training during the next few months. Please contact either Bunny Kasin, Carole Polacsek, or Mike Fischer if you are interested in getting involved with this fund raiser.

“Repairing the World Project”

For the past several weeks, Sunday's blast included a list of items that our Sisterhood, in the spirit of "tikkun olam" - repairing the world - collected for two local charities. Thanks to your generosity, we received many of the needed items.

We delivered the goods to the Mechanicville Area Community Center and WellSpring formerly known as Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Services). It could not have been accomplished without your generous support and concern for the less fortunate in our community, Thanks to you, we were able to provide comfort and [relief to people in need.

On behalf of the Sisterhood, I wish to thank all who contributed to the Tikkun Olam - repairing the world project. I am touched beyond words.....

Judith Ehrenshaft

Welcome to late Spring and the beginning of Summer. Our cemetery is starting to look better and better thanks to all that helped get it to this point. We are looking at more work on landscaping and improving the fence to make the cemetery more secure and further improve its' look. We do all of this to keep our cemetery looking good. Our friends and relatives resting in our cemetery can't do it anymore. You take pride when you see a nice-looking cemetery. It is a big mitzvah to help if you can. Thanks to those on the cemetery committee that keep this project going. Take care and keep safe.

Sid in the News

A large Veteran Service Office was recently opened in Menands, New York. The opening was attended by US Congressman Paul Tonko and a representative from the Governor's office. The invocation was given by the DAV chaplain, Sid Gordon.

The office services all the veterans in this part of New York. It is staffed by Disabled American Veterans (DAV) personnel, supporting veterans who don't know what to do for help and providing information on available benefits.

Saratoga Springs Jewish Community History - by Dick Chait

Recent correspondence from the Saratoga Springs Preservation Foundation gave me additional insight into the history of the building located at 65 Phila Street that I would like to share. I thought the building was one of the boarding houses as mentioned on the historic marker on the corner of Phila and Putnam Street. No history was given. It turns out there is more to the story as excerpted from the SSPF note and given below.

" The building at 65 Phila Street was built in 1851 by Alexander Patterson, an Irish immigrant and owner of Patterson Mineral Springs. His family remained in the building for the next 90 years after which it was purchased by Brooklyn's Congregation Bais Moische who used for a summer residence for the about the next 30 years. It is also believed that a Mikveh was located on the property."

The preservation foundation bought the dilapidated house last May for $235,000, with a grant from the Carruth Foundation, after a protracted fight with the previous owners to save the historic property.

The preservation foundation is raising $300,000 to pay for environmental remediation, structural stabilization and to restore the exterior. The plan then is to sell the house to someone who will complete the interior and serve as a good steward of the property. Proceeds will be reinvested in a future preservation project.

This part of the calendar also includes Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Memorial Day), scheduled to coincide with the suppression of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising, and modern Israel's Memorial and Independence days. The State of Israel quite movingly scheduled these national holidays back-to-back, so that Israel's independence is only celebrated after acknowledging the sacrifice of those who were martyred to give their brethren a state "on a silver platter" and those whose lives have been taken on the battlefield or by acts of terror in the years since. Sadly, that roll of martyrs has grown even in recent weeks, as enemies of the Jewish nation once again look to spring as the season of rampage. May God thwart their evil plans.

Finally, let's not forget that this corner of our calendar culminates in the holiday of Shavuot, the anniversary of Torah and the Revelation at Sinai. For some reason, Shavuot is the "forgotten man" among the major Jewish holidays. This is likely because it often falls past the end of the Hebrew School year, as families are looking ahead to summer vacation, and perhaps also because it lacks a corresponding Christian holiday to bring it attention in the American civic consciousness. Compared with its "peer" holidays, Sukkot and Pesach, Shavuot comes and goes quickly (though we spend seven weeks counting up to it!), and doesn't require any major advanced preparation like construction work or intensive housecleaning. But Shavuot has its own charms, from Tikkun Leil Shavuot (a late-night or all-night study session to kick off the holiday), to the Ten Commandments, to the Megillah of Ruth, to cheesecake, blintzes, and other dairy delicacies instead of meat. Barring any major step backward in the pandemic situation, you'll be able to join us in the synagogue for all of the above for the first time in a long time on June 4-6 this year. For those unfamiliar, I offer the same advice about Shavuot as about the cheesecake: try it, you'll like it!
