From the Desk of Rabbi Marmon

As the High Holy Days come into view over the horizon, this year my mind is on the sometimes forgotten fall holiday that sneaks in behind: Sukkot (or Succoth, if you hanker for old-timey transliterations that won't upset your computer's spell checker). There is a very straightforward reason for this: as a new homeowner, I'm going to need to buy/build a new sukkah this year!

Let's take a moment to think about what a sukkah is and does. Whether in your yard or on your balcony or on the grounds of a communal building, a sukkah takes a piece of empty space, nothing but open air, and transforms it for a week into a sacred domain. Even before the holiday is fully complete*, the sukkah's purpose is complete and – assuming it made it to the end – it transforms into nothing but an incompletely shady box of outside air. (*Sh'mini Atzeret is simultaneously the last day of Sukkot and a holiday of its own; it is separate and a part. The mitzvah of living/sitting in the sukkah no longer applies, though it is a custom outside of Israel to still recite kiddush in the sukkah on the first day of Sh'mini Atzeret. We do this because it is also the second day of the seventh day of Sukkot – which is Hoshana Rabbah – but we don't use the sukkah at all on Simchat Torah, though it is actually the second day of Sh'mini Atzeret. Now, try to explain that to your non-Jewish friends!)

There are a number of valuable lessons in the simple idea of the sukkah. First, we learn that sanctity is what we make of it. An old person is nothing more to nature than a person who is old, but when we treat them with deference and respect for their experience, they are an elder. Saturday is just another day of the week, unless we make it Shabbat. Aside from our health and safety, almost everything we hold dear is of value because of the meaning we create and invest it with, not because of anything intrinsic to it. The corollary of this is that we have the power to decide what people and things we hold sacred, what we regard as ordinary, and what we revile. Let us choose wisely.

Rabbi Marmon’s office hours:

To reach the Rabbi, you may either call the office or call the Rabbi directly at his number listed in the synagogue directory.

Office Hours: Office hours are 9:00am-1:00pm.

Carole’s Request: Email communications to the office and for Scroll submittals are requested to be sent to the synagogue email address at saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com . The deadline for Scroll submittals of text is the 10th of the month prior to the next Scroll (i.e. October 10th for the November/December Scroll).

Covid Controls: If you will be attending services in-house, we ask that you bring your own Tallis and Yarmulka. Masks and proof of vaccination are required to enter the building.

Communications

- We are trying to communicate more with our members and friends by email. We have been sending out weekly if not more often, email messages. If we do not have your email address, or if you are not sure if we do, please send it to: saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com so we can add it to our contacts.
- We have a phone tree that sends out messages from the synagogue. If you are not receiving the messages, please call the office and provide Carole with your phone number.

When You Need Something

- If you know of a congregant who would like a home or hospital visit, call Carole in the office. Cynthia Flax and Roberta Gottesman have generously started a sunshine outreach to our friends in the synagogue.
- Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you have any questions about any of our programs.

Memorial Candles & Birthday Greetings

- The Congregation sends out a reminder letter with a memorial candle when you have a yahrzeit for a loved one. We also send annual birthday greetings. Let the office know if you would prefer to not receive candles, or are not receiving reminder letters/ birthday greetings.

Remembrance/Dedications

- If you would like to honor your loved ones who have departed, we offer Memorial Plaques in the Sanctuary. They are a permanent remembrance for those who are no longer with us. The cost is $500 per plaque. In addition, one can dedicate a Prayer book to honor a special occasion ($36) or a gold leaf in the vestibule’s Tree of Life ($200). For more information, please call Carole in the office.
- As our Mi Sheberach list grows, we are not sure if some of our congregants and friends still need to be on the list. Please call Carole so that we can update our list and keep it current.

Cemetery

- The Cemetery Rules and Fees document of Congregation Shaara Tfillle spells out eligibility, rights, and fees. It also sets guidelines for use of the building and sanctuary during funerals. Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you wish to receive an electronic copy of the document.
- Our Cemetery is open year round. We ask that you be careful when visiting. The walkway can be slippery.

Synagogue Breakfast Prepared by the Men's Club - September 11th and October 9th

Please join us for a sumptuous breakfast on Sunday, September 11th at 9:30am as we celebrate the end of 5782. On October 9th, our speaker will be our very own Rabbi Marmon, after which we will be decorating our Synagogue Sukkot. We are very excited to be having our Hebrew School families joining us on this special morning. The cost is $10.00 for everyone over 13 years of age. We ask that you rsvp to the office by September 7th and October 6th so that we can prepare accordingly.

The Jewish War Veterans meeting will be held at about 11:00am following each breakfast. The Jewish War Veterans of America Post 36 of Saratoga Springs New York, is happy to report that four new members have joined our organization. Anyone interested in joining or obtaining information on JWV Post 36, please contact Commander Sam Gottesman at 518-796-0134 or via email samuelgottesman@yahoo.com

Havurah Vatik

We have been working on programs to present to our members, which include ANYONE who would like to be included. Starting this September, programs will be in person (unless there is another Covid crisis, kinahora), followed by a lunch catered by Cindy Shaw of 'What's Cooking'.

The September program will take place at our usual time and place: third Tuesday (September 20), 11 am, at Congregation Shaara Tfilla on Weibel Avenue, Saratoga Springs. This program is quite unusual and very exciting: Skidmore Professor of Religion, Greg Spinner, will present a new look at the shifting and obscure figure of Lilith: "Revis(it)ing Lilith." He will describe how she develops over time from a single mention in the TaNaKh, to Adam's first partner, to a demonic figure, and on to reinvention as a feminist icon. Greg Spinner teaches religion at Skidmore College, with courses ranging across midrash, myth, mysticism, and more. We hope you will join us in September.

October holds another very exciting opportunity: as Rabbi Linda prepares to launch a fall/winter exhibition at the Spring Street Gallery in Saratoga Springs, she will present a program to Havurah Vatik, providing us an inside look at the art works she will display. Mark your calendar for October 25 (last Tuesday of this month), 11 am at Shaara Tfilla.

Reservations are requested by email at havurahvatic@gmail.com by the prior Thursday, so that appropriate food preparations can be made.

65 Phila Street- An Update - by Dick Chait

Earlier this year in The Scroll, I summarized the historical significance and present fate of the rundown house at 65 Phila Street. This article provides an update to what has been happening with the much-needed renovation of the property purchased by the Saratoga Springs Preservation Foundation (SSPF) in May 2021.

SSPF reports that work on the interior of the house has begun. Contractors have removed both the plaster as well as the material fastened to the structural members of the house that provide the base for the aforementioned plaster. In addition, windows have been removed and stored prior to the restoration of the sashes. SSPF also reports that it has received a grant from The 1772 Foundation for the rehabilitation of 65 Phila Street which supplements the partial funding already received from many local contributors, though more monies are needed to take this historically - and architecturally - valuable project through to completion.

A final thought: it may be difficult to tell from the outside, but from the building permit on the door one can be sure that progress is being made inside. All in all, it is a great start to the rehabilitation of this building, which is linked closely to the history of the Jewish community in Saratoga.

Desk of Sid - Hello to All

A summer update on our cemetery- new blacktop where needed in the parking lot and paths for the cemetery. The head stones almost look like new. Work will be started on front fence. Other work planed on new fence around cemetery. Take a look for yourself. You will be pleased. Thank you to all that helped up to now. Take care and keep safe. Our community works hard to keep our projects going.

Our sukkah teaches us not to judge by appearances. It's not just that what was an open patch of grass or concrete or deck or patio one week is a sacred enclosure the next, but also that a sukkah is typically not much to look at. Some do dress them up quite a bit, but most people's sukkah looks – to the unfamiliar observer – shoddy, ramshackle, and unfinished. No one is ever shocked if their sukkah blows over or falls apart in a strong wind. It's not built to last. All true. And yet, it is in our sukkah that we receive the Ushpizin (the seven figures from biblical history who are mystical guests in our sukkah each night); it is our time in the sukkah that we describe in our prayers as "the time of our joy;" it is our fragile sukkah that reminds us of that time period in our history when our ancestors, newly freed from slavery, wandered the desert without a visible source of water, food, or shelter, while God, the "Source of Living Waters," who "feeds all," our "high tower and sheltering rock" miraculously provided for all their needs.

The sukkah is a reminder too that perfection is not always the right goal. In fact, the sukkah is invalid if it is too complete. We must be able to see the sky through the s'khakh which forms its roof. Although it is permissible to build a sukkah with four walls and a doorway, a sukkah is valid with as few as two complete walls and a partial third. Although the sukkah should be strong enough to hold up to typical winds, it need not be strong enough to survive storms. When the weather is unpleasant, we do not try to weatherproof our sukkah, we go inside. It's quite healthy for us to realize that perfection is often impossible; God expects only that we do our best, and we should be satisfied with that standard too. The sukkah's very imperfection is what makes it a holy space, while it's more perfectly constructed neighbor is a tool shed.

What lessons can you draw from the sukkah, the holy, holey, wholly unique hut at the center of Sukkot?

(On October 9th, Men's Club will be preparing a breakfast after which we will be decorating our Synagogue Sukkot. We are very excited to be having our Hebrew School families joining us on this special morning. The cost is $10.00 for everyone over 13 years of age. We ask that you rsvp to the office by October 6th so that we can prepare accordingly.)

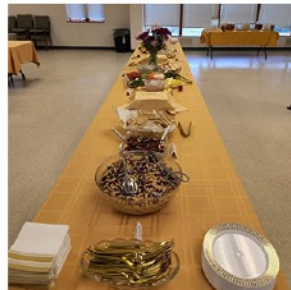

Baruch Haba - Blessed is he who comes.

After a two-year delay due to the pandemic, we finally met on Sunday, June 26, 2022, to celebrate and officially welcome Rabbi Boaz Marmon as our spiritual leader and teacher. Also, this was our first in-person fundraiser in three years. We are grateful for sponsorships and underwriting of all that a happy event like this entails - food, flowers, postage, paper goods, etc. The congregation's generosity saved us several thousand dollars in costs.

A hearty Yasher koach - thank you, to the Sisterhood volunteers whose hard work made this celebration happen!

Judith Ehrenschaft, Sisterhood President
