

The Jewish Burial Society of Saratoga Springs

Invites

All Interested Parties

To a

Weekend Series on the Holy Work of the Chevra Kadisha

Friday, Saturday, & Sunday

May 3, 4, & 5

Our guest for the weekend will be David Zinner, the Executive Director of the Gamliel Institute, a center for study, training, and advocacy concerning Jewish end of life practices.

The Institute is a project of Kavod V'Nichum (Honor and Comfort)

Friday, May 3
Temple Sinai

509 Broadway, Saratoga
Springs
5:30 p.m. Oneg
6 p.m. Shabbat services
with presentation,
"Spiritual Uplift:
Stories from the Field"

Saturday, May 4
Congregation Shaara
Tfille

84 Weibel Avenue,
Saratoga Springs
10 a.m. Shabbat
morning services with d'var Torah on
parasha Acharei Mot

Saturday, May 4
Temple Sinai

509 Broadway, Saratoga
Springs
7-8:30 p.m. Vegetarian
Potluck Supper with Havdalah
"History of the Chevra
Kadisha & Best
Current Practices"

Sunday, May 5, 1-3p.m. Congregation Shaara Tfille

Tahara Training: Hands-on, "how-to" session on performing the ritual washing and preparation of a body for Jewish burial.

OPEN to ALL presently involved or interested in learning more about the work of the Chevra Kadisha

CONTACT THE OFFICE OF TEMPLE SINAI (518)-584-8730 or CONGREGATION SHAARA TFILLE (518) 584-2370
FOR MORE INFORMATION