From the Desk of Rabbi Marmon

The late winter months on the Jewish calendar are marked by two special occasions. First is 'Asarah b'Tevet, the tenth of Tevet (January 10th this year), one of four annual fasts connected with the destruction of the First Temple, specifically marking the date when Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian armies laid siege to Jerusalem in 586 BCE, all but sealing the city's fate. This fast might be the least observed part of the cycle, as it comes all by itself in an isolated corner of the calendar, while all the others are part of holiday "seasons" (the fasts of Tammuz and Av come together bracketing the three week period of mourning in summer, while Tzom Gedaliah falls within the Ten Days of Awe in the fall). This reminder that Jerusalem suffered six months of siege before the breaching of her walls led inexorably to the Destruction brings to mind Hemingway's description of bankruptcy: gradual, then sudden. This is a pattern that played out even more extremely in Syria recently, where the civil war appeared to be holding in a stable impasse after a decade and a half of killing, before a sudden surge of activity resulted in the toppling and flight of the dictator Bashar Al-Assad within less than two weeks.

Just over a month after 'Asarah b'Tevet, we mark Tu b'Shvat, the 15th of Shvat (February 13th this year), often called the birthday of the trees, or the Jewish Arbor Day. Although it falls within the wintertime – especially here in the north – Tu b'Shvat gets us thinking ahead to spring, and looking out for trees returning to life and bearing their fruit. This is a reminder that nature, too, can move in ways that are gradual, then sudden, as a slow rise in temperatures and lengthening of days suddenly turns to melting of all the piled-up snow and budding of new leaves.

Our tradition asserts that this pattern of gradual, then sudden is baked into the nature of our world, as many centuries of hard human work to gradually improve the world around us will culminate in a relatively sudden process of redemption of the world – take that as literally or as figuratively as you choose. And the pattern appears in many aspects of our personal life as well, such as the growth of our children into young adults, or the changes in our health as we age.

Let us take these quiet holidays of the late winter as a spur to appreciate the best in every part of our lives – as those things might change gradually or suddenly, but they won't last forever. At the same time, let us not lose hope when the progress of our ideals and hopes seems achingly gradual – at any moment, it could flower with sudden new growth.

Communications

- E-mail- We are trying to communicate more with our members and friends by email. We have been sending out weekly if not more often, email messages. If you have not been receiving weekly messages, please send your email address to the office (saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com) so we can add it to our contacts.
- We have a phone tree that sends out messages from the synagogue. If you are not receiving the messages, please call the office and provide Carole with your phone number.

When You Need Something

- If you know of a congregant who would like a home or hospital visit, call Carole in the office. Cynthia Flax and Roberta Gottesman have generously started a sunshine outreach to our friends in the synagogue.
- Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you have any questions about any of our programs.

Memorial Candles & Birthday Greetings

- The Congregation sends out a reminder letter with a memorial candle when you have a yahrzeit for a loved one. We also send annual birthday greetings. Let the office know if you would prefer to not receive candles, or are not receiving reminder letters/ birthday greetings.

Remembrance/Dedications

- If you would like to honor your loved ones who have departed, we offer Memorial Plaques in the Sanctuary. They are a permanent remembrance for those who are no longer with us. The cost is $500 per plaque. In addition, one can dedicate a Prayer book to honor a special occasion ($36) or a gold leaf for the vestibule's Tree of Life ($200). For more information, please call Carole in the office.
- As our Mi Sheberach list grows, we are not sure if some of our congregants and friends still need to be on the list. Please call Carole so that we can update our list and keep it current.

Cemetery

- The Cemetery Rules and Fees document of Congregation Shaara Tfilla spells out eligibility, rights, and fees. It also sets guidelines for use of the building and sanctuary during funerals. Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you wish to receive an electronic copy of the document.
- Our Cemetery is open year round. We ask that you be careful when visiting. The walkway can be slippery.

Services

- If you will be attending services in-house, we ask that you bring your own Tallis and Yarmulka. There will be no Friday night services during July and August, 2024.
- We especially need you for attendance at one, two or more 7:30am Minyan services on Monday and Thursday.

2025 Shalach Manot

In celebration of the Purim miracle, Mordachi declared that each family should send gifts to their neighbors. This custom has continued for generations. This year, as in years past, we invite you to participate in the Shaara Tfillle Shalach Manot project. Each member family of our Synagogue will receive a Shalach Manot bag delivered to their home. A card enclosed with each bag will list those families who have sent their holiday blessings through the Synagogue. If you wish to send holiday greetings to the entire Congregation, the cost is $36. We will be sending about 100 bags, so don't miss this great opportunity!
