From the Desk of Rabbi Marmon

As the High Holy Days come into view over the horizon, this year my mind is on the sometimes forgotten fall holiday that sneaks in behind: Sukkot (or Succoth, if you hanker for old-timey transliterations that won't upset your computer's spell checker).

Let's take a moment to think about what a sukkah is and does. Whether in your yard or on your balcony or on the grounds of a communal building, a sukkah takes a piece of empty space, nothing but open air, and transforms it for a week into a sacred domain. Even before the holiday is fully complete*, the sukkah's purpose is complete and – assuming it made it to the end – it transforms into nothing but an incompletely shady box of outside air. (*Sh'mini Atzeret is simultaneously the last day of Sukkot and a holiday of its own; it is separate and a part. The mitzvah of living/sitting in the sukkah no longer applies, though it is a custom outside of Israel to still recite kiddush in the sukkah on the first day of Sh'mini Atzeret. We do this because it is also the second day of the seventh day of Sukkot – which is Hoshana Rabbah – but we don't use the sukkah at all on Simchat Torah, though it is actually the second day of Sh'mini Atzeret. Now, try to explain that to your non-Jewish friends!)

There are a number of valuable lessons in the simple idea of the sukkah. First, we learn that sanctity is what we make of it. An old person is nothing more to nature than a person who is old, but when we treat them with deference and respect for their experience, they are an elder. Saturday is just another day of the week, unless we make it Shabbat. Aside from our health and safety, almost everything we hold dear is of value because of the meaning we create and invest it with, not because of anything intrinsic to it. The corollary of this is that we have the power to decide what people and things we hold sacred, what we regard as ordinary, and what we revile. Let us choose wisely.

Communications

- E-mail- We are trying to communicate more with our members and friends by email. We have been sending out weekly if not more often, email messages. If you have not been receiving weekly messages, please send your email address to the office (saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com) so we can add it to our contacts.
- We have a phone tree that sends out messages from the synagogue. If you are not receiving the messages, please call the office and provide Carole with your phone number.

When You Need Something

- If you know of a congregant who would like a home or hospital visit, call Carole in the office. Cynthia Flax and Roberta Gottesman have generously started a sunshine outreach to our friends in the synagogue.
- Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you have any questions about any of our programs.

Memorial Candles

- The Congregation sends out a reminder letter with a memorial candle when you have a yahrzeit for a loved one. Let the office know if you would prefer to not receive candles.

Remembrance/Dedications

- If you would like to honor your loved ones who have departed, we offer Memorial Plaques in the Sanctuary. They are a permanent remembrance for those who are no longer with us. The cost is $500 per plaque. In addition, one can dedicate a Prayer book to honor a special occasion ($36) or a gold leaf for the vestibule's Tree of Life ($200). For more information, please call Carole in the office.
- As our Mi Sheberach list grows, we are not sure if some of our congregants and friends still need to be on the list. Please call Carole so that we can update our list and keep it current.

Cemetery

- The Cemetery Rules and Fees document of Congregation Shaara Tfillle spells out eligibility, rights, and fees. It also sets guidelines for use of the building and sanctuary during funerals. Call the office at 518-584-2370 if you wish to receive an electronic copy of the document.
- Our Cemetery is open year round. We ask that you be careful when visiting. The walkway can be slippery.

Services

- We need you for attendance at one, two or more 7:30am Minyan services on Monday and Thursday.

Office Hours

Office hours are 9:00am-1:00pm Monday thru Friday. Please call 518-584-2370 before coming over. The office will be closed on September 1, 23, 24 and October 2, 7, 8, 14 and 15.

Rabbi Marmon's office hours:

To reach the Rabbi, you may either call the office or call the Rabbi directly at his number listed in the synagogue directory.

Carole's Request: Email communications to the office and for Scroll submissions are requested to be sent to the synagogue email address at saratogajcc@albany.twcbc.com. The deadline for Scroll submissions of text is on or before the 10th of the month prior to the next Scroll (i.e. October 10th for the September/October Scroll).

break the fast!

We will again be having a Break-Fast at Congregation Shaara Tfilla following the ending of Yom Kippur. Unfortunately, we will not be able to accommodate walk-ins. Please rsvp by Friday, September 26, to 518-584-2370. Our Break-Fast is being generously underwritten by a grant from The Jewish Federation of Northeastern NY.

Simchat Torah-please join us on Thursday, October 14th as we celebrate Simchat Torah. Our evening will begin at 5:30 pm with a light dairy dinner, followed by a 6:00 pm Simchat Torah Service.

Please remember to bring your wrapped, kosher candy to hand out. There is no cost for the dinner, but we ask that you rsvp to Carole (518-584-2370) by October 9th, so that we can prepare accordingly.

Our sukkah teaches us not to judge by appearances. It's not just that what was an open patch of grass or concrete or deck or patio one week is a sacred enclosure the next, but also that a sukkah is typically not much to look at. Some do dress them up quite a bit, but most people's sukkah looks – to the unfamiliar observer – shoddy, ramshackle, and unfinished. No one is ever shocked if their sukkah blows over or falls apart in a strong wind. It's not built to last. All true. And yet, it is in our sukkah that we receive the Ushpizin (the seven figures from biblical history who are mystical guests in our sukkah each night); it is our time in the sukkah that we describe in our prayers as "the time of our joy;" it is our fragile sukkah that reminds us of that time period in our history when our ancestors, newly freed from slavery, wandered the desert without a visible source of water, food, or shelter, while God, the "Source of Living Waters," who "feeds all," our "high tower and sheltering rock" miraculously provided for all their needs.

The sukkah is a reminder too that perfection is not always the right goal. In fact, the sukkah is invalid if it is too complete. We must be able to see the sky through the s'khakh which forms its roof. Although it is permissible to build a sukkah with four walls and a doorway, a sukkah is valid with as few as two complete walls and a partial third. Although the sukkah should be strong enough to hold up to typical winds, it need not be strong enough to survive storms. When the weather is unpleasant, we do not try to weatherproof our sukkah, we go inside. It's quite healthy for us to realize that perfection is often impossible; God expects only that we do our best, and we should be satisfied with that standard too. The sukkah's very imperfection is what makes it a holy space, while it's more perfectly constructed neighbor is a tool shed.

What lessons can you draw from the sukkah, the holy, holey, wholly unique hut at the center of Sukkot?

Once again, you went above and beyond for Sisterhood's Tikkun Olam school supply project. Thanks to your kindness, 200 children in southern Saratoga County will begin the school year "on the right foot."

THANK YOU to Congregation Shaara Tfilie! ✨📖

We are so grateful for the amazing donation of school supplies delivered this morning by Judith & Carole on behalf of Congregation Shaara Tfilie!

Your generosity is deeply appreciated, and thanks to you, we'll be able to distribute backpacks full of essential supplies to students from Pre-K through 12th grade in our community & neighboring communities.

Thank you for helping set our students up for success this school year! 💙📖

EVENT

11 am - 1 pm

Dean (and friend)
explain his wild career

We meet at Congregation Shaara Tfilla, 84 Weibel Ave., Saratoga Springs, NY 12866

We are in for some fun today, as our special guest, Dean Gordon, and his friend (the little guy in red) tell us tales from Dean's show-business career.

He plans to take us on a tour of career highlights, including the lofty (directing intermission features for the Metropolitan Opera) to the more basic (stage manager for the Howard Stern TV show).

He'll regale us with tales of TV folks we might have heard of, from Fred Rogers, Jerry Lewis, Jerry Seinfeld, to the crew on Sesame Street.

A delicious catered lunch follows the program

We need your RSVP by Sept. 10

Tell us if you plan to attend and if you will stay for lunch

Tell us also if you would like a ride to the program

Please click the button below to RSVP via email

Because we pay our caterer based on number of lunches ordered, it is crucial that you let us know if you:

- Plan to attend the luncheon or will attend only the program
- Need to cancel your reservation
- Need transportation

Keep Havurah Vatik alive and well - bring along a friend to enjoy this program!

Havurah Vatik is grateful to its sponsor the Jewish Federation of NENY

To contact Havurah Vatik for any other reason, you can email the chairs:
